

What are the stages to a general election?

Step 1	Step 2	Step 3
Step 4	Step 5	Step 6

Polling day People go to a polling station to vote.	Registering to vote Eligible voters make sure that they are registered to vote.	Results time The results are announced and the leader of the winning party visits the monarch.
A new government is formed The new Prime Minister decides who will help them to run the country.	The election is called The Prime Minister calls an election.	Campaigning Candidates campaign in their constituencies and nationally.

